

Headington Quarry Foundation Stage School

STATEMENT FOR SEX EDUCATION

No formal sex education is given. However, the school aims to answer children's questions honestly and sensitively and appropriate for their age:

- By creating opportunities for children to become aware of their own bodies – discussing the similarities and the differences
- By developing children's acceptance of their own bodies and respect for the bodies of others
- Through understanding life cycles of animals and plants

Date of Policy:

Chair of governors:

Date for review: Nov 2013